CATTLE P MYING THROUGH THE STREETS. in w' sich it is the custom to drive cattle through els of the city, thus placing in jeopardy the At account, rendered poweriess in acting with his a energy in putting a stop to one of the greatest s with which this metropolis is afflicted. It has not, ever, escaped the attent on of the Mayor, who is exceeds a nulsance. It will be remembered that in one is Honor's communications to the Common Conneil, alled their attention in a particular manner to this cet, explaining the necessity for prompt action in red to it. The following clause alludes to it:—

e practice of driving cattle through the city is another calling for prompt action. It is an abuse which our ams have submitted to teo long. In my option this mon Council will deserve the severast consure if, like its ceasers, it thindly skulks from its duty in ridding us it dangerous nuisance. Not only is the health of the opopulation jeoparded by the unwholecome odors arisem the collection of these asimals, but it not unfrestly occure that life, limb and property are destroyed greatly occurs that he had been defored the Board of Councilmen, it having passed the other branch of the Common Council, and it is sincerely to be hoped that it will not meet with opposition, as its passage would prove highly beneficial the council.

The Prohibitory Liquor Law. The Mayor of Albany has sent a communication to the common Council in regard to the Liquor law, in which he arrives at the conclusion that there is now no law he arrives at the conclusion that there is now no law against selling liquor, but that the Council have the power to regulate the sale. The Mayor says the new law has breken up the compact between the city and the solice, in regard to the duties of the latter, and has selt upon the city the burden of paying police nen, while it has transferred those officers to its own service, sending them to hunt up rum casks and bottles, instead of looking for burglars and thieves.

The City Attorney of Utica has given his opinion that fluore cannot be sold in less quantity than five gallons, between the 1st of May and 4th of July, without a violation of the old law.
